Insurance Provisions:

You have a choice of two types of travel insurance protection plans. One is offered by the supplier of the package/cruise itself and has to be purchased on deposit. The second is offered by travel insurance providers. The supplier direct protection is usually good for date, hotel, or name change. It protects you from many not all cancellation fees as you get closer to your travel date. It may cover you from Airline fees ($100.00 or more) and our change fees ($100.00). The second, is true insurance and covers you from cancellation fees, lost luggage, and offers medical and evacuation type insurance as well as a medical cancellation protection. Please select your insurance coverage carefully.

Due to the recent airline industry changes please RECONFIRM your flights with the airline 24 hours in advance. When traveling in unfamiliar areas always check with the hotel as to area safety. Airlines may increase pricing until full payment is made.
